WHAT WE DO

'PEAK' Music Festival A two-day celebration of performing arts & culture at Rotary Park in Cranbrook. This family friendly festival strengthens social connection and fosters a better understanding of the value of the arts. The festival's theme focusses on a rich variety of Kootenay performing artists along with touring Canadian artists like a harvest festival celebrates the bounty of the growing season. This fun-filled musical adventure is presented free to attendees thanks to corporate and government funding.

Summer Sounds/Dancing in the Park Free live music shows featuring regional performing artists in Cranbrook's Rotary Park, every Saturday throughout the summer months of July and August. It's Cranbrook's best casual social gathering for artists, community, and visitors.

Winter Ale Series: In partnership with the Key City Theatre in Cranbrook BC, this series of five intimate concerts runs once per month, January to May, featuring local performers opening for an established touring artist. Benefits include networking and a unique connection for artists and audience.
